Dr. Emilio José Illán Fernández
Researcher for DecisionES Project
Centre de Ciència i Tecnologia Forestal de Catalunya

Dear Dr. García-Gonzalo and Dr. Illán-Fernández,

We are glad to invite Dr. Emilio José Illán-Fernández, from the Centre de Ciència i Tecnologia Forestal de Catalunya, as visiting researcher at the Faculty of Agriculture and Natural Systems of the Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile. He is invited to visit us between 2nd March 2026 and 11th April 2026. Our collaboration is in the context of the Project DecisionES “Decision Support for the Supply of Ecosystem Services under Global Change” (Nº 101007950) funded by a Marie Skłodowska-Curie Research and Innovation Staff Exchange (RISE) within the H2020 work programme (H2020-MSCA-RISE - /2021 -31/06/2026).

Dr. Illán-Fernández will work with Dr. M. Paulina Fernández in the field of design of support systems for decisions in urban environments related to the evaluation of climatic shelters provided by urban trees. During this exchange, we will provide him with a working space in our offices and access to IT and communication facilities.

We are sure his visit will be of mutual benefit and will build stronger relationships and collaboration between both institutions.

Yours sincerely,

Dr. M. Paulina Fernández Q.
